

BRIAN & GEORGE

6

It Shoulda Been You
BROADWAY
(Script pg. 41)

6. Back In The Day

BRIAN & GEORGE

04-01-15

Music by Barbara Anselmi
Lyrics by Brian Hargrove

GEORGE: Well, alright then.
Should we hug?

BRIAN: We don't have to-

GEORGE: I think we should.

BRIAN: Okay.

♩-(BRIAN and GEORGE hug) [MUSIC GO]

Light Swing, feels like it's in 2  $\text{♩} = 115$

GEORGE: Well that was... GEORGE/BRIAN: Not bad.

GEORGE:

START

Back in the 5

6 7 8 9

day my dad was not my friend. We were like stran-gers 'til the bit-ter end. The stick was too far up his butt to bend. He could - n't. I would - n't.

10 11 12 13

~~GEORGE: Walk with me...~~

Back in the 15

day, the soft stuff went un - said, to say "I love you" filled a man with dread. My fa - ther said it once and then dropped dead. — You can't have fee - lings when you wear the pants. Come on let's dance. —

27

BRIAN:

GEORGE: Shuffle Ball change...

Who is this per - son and what has he done with my fa - ther? De - cades of si - lence now he has

30 GEORGE: And turn. 31 32 GEORGE: It's

BRIAN: some-thing to say? — There was a time I'd have loved this. Now why does he bo - ther? It's real - ly too bad, if on - ly we'd had this talk back in the day.

33 34

real - ly too bad, if on - ly we'd had this talk back in the day.

STOP